

The book cover features a textured, painterly background. The top half is a mottled blue-grey, while the bottom half is a layered, wavy landscape of yellow and orange. A hand, rendered in a realistic style, emerges from the bottom, holding a thin, dark, needle-like object. In the center, a dark rectangular frame contains the author's name and the word 'Roman'. To the left of this frame, there are some abstract, colorful shapes, including a red one and a circular white one with a black center.
